

CHRP Video - Business Plans

Business Plans

Business plans are an important component of compliance agreements. Completing the plans will assist growers with the management of citrus pests and diseases, give a general feel for trends and conditions, and provide documented evidence of disease control objectives that are important to phytosanitary trade agreements. Examples of how to complete the plans are also presented.